

Basics

Bus / tram lines and stops

Trams and day buses operate more or less from 5:00 to 23:00. Night buses (N-xx) operate from 23:15 to 4:45 (from Dw. Centralny). The underground (metro) runs from 5:15 to 0:20 (from Centrum). On Friday and Saturday nights it operates to 2:50.

Trams stop on every stop they meet. Some bus stops are on request (but none mentioned here).

“Fast” bus lines (numbers 4xx, 5xx, and E-x) stop on chosen stops only. (Almost) all stops are on request on night buses.

A bus or a tram stop is identified by a name and a number. The number identifies a concrete stop or a platform within a stops group. You can find all stops of a line on a board inside a tram or a bus.

Tickets

The tickets system is now a bit complex in Warsaw (see all kinds of tickets and official regulations). We give here Zone 1 tickets (valid within the city boundaries in the underground, on buses, trams and local trains) for sensible durations:

Price (PLN)		Description
N	U*
2,80	1,40	Single-pass ticket. Valid in the bus / tram you validated it or for one run in the underground.
2,00	1,00	20-minutes ticket. You can use all means of transport during 20 minutes from validation.
2,80	1,40	40-minutes ticket. You can use all means of transport during 40 minutes from validation. It is a different kind of ticket from the single-pass ticket.
9,00	4,50	24-hours ticket. You can use all means of transport during 24 hours from validation.
32,00	16,00	7-days ticket. You can use all means of transport during 7 subsequent days, the first day counted is the day you validate the ticket (even if it is 23:50).

You can buy tickets in news-stands and many small grocery shops. Not all of them offer all kinds of tickets though, the hardest to buy are 20- and 40-minutes tickets. All kinds of tickets are usually available in post offices. Bus and tram drivers sell single-pass tickets, but they don't return change, they may refuse selling if the car they drive is delayed and sometimes they run out of tickets. Generally we suggest to use a 7-days ticket.

* Polish students (including PhD students) having a valid student card, regardless their age, and foreign students having an ISIC card up to their 26th birthday may use half-price tickets (bilet ulgowy, marked U).

There is no additional charge for luggage.
